Such a belated recommendation cause much avoidable inconvenience.

I presume there is a library attached to the Mysore Normal School & that it gets an annual grant - The Normal Schools at Kolar & Shimoga were recently visited and reported upon & some libraries in connection therewith - The annual grant proposed is moderate & may be sanctioned & included in the Budget - P

Docket No 11170 / 474 & the 28th June 04
from the Dgl of Edn in Mysore

With reference to the above query the Dgl states that the books required for the Normal Schools are quite different from the books available in the College and High School He therefore thinks that a Separate Library is required for each of the two Normal Schools. The grant asked for is Rs 25 for each School for orders.

Enclosures

With reference to the docket No 6452 of 24th June 1904, has the honour to inform that the libraries of Training Institutions are of an essentially different character from the libraries of Colleges and High Schools The libraries of the Shimoga and Kolar Normal Schools should contain chiefly books on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, and books of Vernacular literature. When books of reference or of general literature have to be consulted, the teachers and pupils of the Normal schools may consult the library of the Shimoga College or Kolar High School But the occasions for doing so will be few. It is necessary that there should be a small library in each district Normal School suited to its work of training Vernacular Teachers
